

Provide CPR

Nationally accredited training course delivered by highly experienced industry specialists!

This half day training course covers a nationally accredited unit and is a requirement for maintaining workplace CPR currency (must be updated annually).

It will provide you with the skills and knowledge to be able to provide CPR first response in case of an emergency, workplace accident or an incident at home.

This quality training is:

- in line with the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) guidelines
- valid for 12 months (as per ARC)

NOTE: Your business may have set its own policy around CPR currency - ETG recognises this and we will work with you to deliver in time training.

Nationally accredited unit:

HLTAID001 Provide cardiopulmonary resuscitation

Please contact us for a quotation to provide training for your employees in your company.

Other specialist courses offered:

- Remote First Aid (accredited unit)
- Swift Water Rescue (Skills set comprising of 3 nationally accredited units)
- Life guard skills / aquatic emergency response

Topics covered in the course are:

- Recognise an emergency situation
- Identify, assess and minimise immediate hazards to health and safety of self and others
- Assess the casualty and recognise the need for CPR
- Seek assistance from emergency response services
- Perform cardiopulmonary resuscitation in accordance with ARC guidelines
- Display respectful behaviour towards casualty
- Operate automated external defibrillator (AED) according to manufacturer's instructions
- Accurately convey incident details to emergency response services
- Report details of incident to workplace supervisor as appropriate
- Maintain confidentiality of records and information in line with statutory and/or organisational policies