

Advanced Resuscitation

Nationally accredited training course delivered by highly experienced industry specialists.

Asystole

This full-day training course covers a nationally accredited unit.

Nationally accredited unit is:

HLTAID007 Provide advanced resuscitation

This advanced course is suitable for workers who in addition may be required to use specialized equipment in the provision of resuscitation in a range of complex situations, including community and workplace settings. This includes caring for a casualty suffering from lack of oxygen, resuscitation of a non-breathing casualty and therapy for a breathing casualty.

- adult and infant resuscitation manikins in line with ARC guidelines for the purpose of assessment of CPR procedures
- airway model suitable for insertion of an oropharyngeal airway
- AED training device
- bag-valve-mask
- oropharyngeal airway adjunct
- oxygen resuscitation system with oxygen cylinder
- selection of oxygen masks with tubing; nasal cannula, therapy mask, resuscitation mask with oxygen port
- suction device
- workplace injury, trauma and/or illness record, or other appropriate workplace incident report forms for written reports

Topics covered in the course include:

- Triage and management when dealing with life threatening conditions
- Assessment of vital signs
- DRSABCD
- Two minutes of uninterrupted CPR
- Operating suction equipment, soft bag resuscitator
- Understanding and use of an Automated External Defibrillator (AED)
- Administration of oxygen
- Oxygen therapy
- Levels of consciousness
- Oropharyngeal airway
- Maintenance of resuscitation equipment
- Legal and other requirements